The 61st JSCE Annual Meeting: Roundtable Meeting and Panel Discussion

Dear Dr. Gansorig Erdene:

It is our great pleasure to provide information about the Roundtable Meeting and Panel Discussion to be held on 11 September, during the 61st JSCE Annual Meeting at Hiroshima University-Higashi Hiroshima Campus in Hiroshima, Japan.

This year's theme of the Roundtable Meeting is "Sustainable Infrastructure Development and Operation Now and for the Future." The meeting will focus on sustainable infrastructure development, operation and maintenance for now and future. Through exchanging each other's views, the participants will identify issues on their infrastructure managements and obtain clues to the solution of the issues.

The theme of the Panel Discussion is "International Cooperation in the Civil Engineering Field." Under the theme, gagajuu will examine civil engineers' cooperation and contribution to the development of society across borders for the future and present more effective and efficient ways of international cooperation through the civil engineering domain.

We hope that through these meetings, participants will share each other's experience and knowledge to contribute to the development and welfare of society. It would be greatly appreciated if you would advise us of your attendance at the Roundtable Meeting and Panel Discussion at your earliest convenience.

Please also let us encourage you to process any required visa documents as early as possible before your departure date. If a letter of invitation is required to secure a visa, please request it as soon as possible by sending an email to, the International Affairs Section: ia@jsce.or.jp.

We look forward to meeting you in Hiroshima.

Sincerely yours,

 Yung ISHII, Dr. Eng.
